ARSENULT NAMED TO LOYOLA'S STAFF

Father Patrick G. Malone, S.J., President of Loyola, announces the appointment of Mr. Paul Arsenault as Head Varsity Hockey Coach and Lecturer at the College.

Arsenault comes to Loyola from Sir George Williams University where he was Director of Athletics and Head Hockey Coach. In accepting the appointment, Arsenault stated, "I am leaving Sir George with many fond memories but the future of Loyola College is most promising. I am especially looking forward to returning to the classroom and teaching in their progressive Bio-Physical Education Program".

The former Sir George Director, while on a study leave in 1969, obtained a Master of Science degree from the University of Oregon. One of his academic specialities is the psychology of motor learning. In 1963 he received his B.P.E. degree from the University of New Brunswick.

As a hockey coach, he has a phenomenal record culminated this last season by being named "Canadian College Coach of the Year". In eight years behind the bench of the Georgians, Arsenault won five League Championships and his teams were National finalists in 1964 and 1968.

At Loyola he inherits a team and hockey program which over the last six years has established itself as one of the top college hockey powers in North America. Dave Draper, the man Arsenault is replacing, achieved a record of 132 wins and 23 losses at Loyola during a five-year term. Draper, who recently accepted a position to coach the Hamilton Red Wings of the OHA, has a high regard for his replacement, "Arsenault, I'm sure will be a credit to Loyola in the classroom and on the ice".

The new Loyola coach plans to call out candidates for the 1972-73 Hockey Warriors on September 18th. Loyola has 24 League games scheduled in the Quebec University Athletic Association. They also have important non-League games vs. the University of Toronto, Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y., and R.P.I. in Albany, N.Y. and will be defending their Hockey Canada Championship in Tournament play.
